“ Helen was such a cheerful person. She focused on what truly matters . . . making other people happy. We didn't get to spend a lot of time with her, but we loved her and always kept up with how she was doing.

Helen was the sweetest..nicest lady you will ever meet. I used to attend Northside Baptist Church and we were in the same Sunday School Class. It was a joy to spent that small amount of time with her. She was good to everyone. Helen will be missed by many, Thoughts and prayers for the family.
