“ We are so sorry, and heart broken, to hear that Homer has passed. My mother, Betty Bearden, played music (guitar) with him. and cherished his and Margaret's friendship for many years. He helped her learn to play the steel, and would come help her any time she asked. She visited them as often as she could. He was a great friend, father, and husband. Sending prayers to all the family hoping they can find comfort in knowing he is completely healed, and is now in the arms of his heavenly father.
