Ida Currie Breazeale, 72, loving wife of 37 years to Hugh Jeffrey Breazeale, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Monday, September 30, 2024, at St. Francis Downtown Hospital in Greenville.

Born September 30, 1952, in Clio, South Carolina, Ida was the daughter of the late Linwood "Sam" Currie and Earlene Batson Currie. Jesus was the focus and her filter for everything in her life. As a little girl she wanted to grow up to be a Lottie Moon. She facilitated a ladies Bible study for over 13 years at Pickens First Baptist Church. She loved her ladies Bible study group. She worked tirelessly to make sure they weren't just a study group but a family.

Traveling and discovering new places, spending unending hours sitting on the beach with her family whether they wanted to be there or not were some of her favorite activities. She loved to watch her son, Christopher play soccer. Planning birthday parties and holiday get-togethers gave her great joy. And every Christmas she spent weeks supervising her husband and children's efforts in putting up the Christmas decorations. Even after illness overtook her she strived to maintain the activities and traditions she had always enjoyed.

Survivors include her husband, Hugh Jeffrey Breazeale of the home; children, Jeffrey Adam Ridgeway, Megan Ridgeway McCollum (Sid), Rachael Breazeale Perkins (Kenny), and Christopher Eli Breazeale; grandchildren, Caleb Ridgeway, Bryson McCollum, and Sarah Kathryn McCollum; a sister, Barbara Latimer; and numerous loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Breazeale was predeceased by a brother, Terry Wayne Currie.

Visitation will be held on Monday, October 7, 2024, from 2:00 PM until 3:00 PM in the sanctuary of Pickens First Baptist Church with a memorial service to follow at 3:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Ida's honor may be made to the Miracle Hill Ministries, P.O. Box 2546, Greenville, SC 29602.

Mountain View Funeral Home – Pickens Chapel is serving the Breazeale family.

“ Rest in peace sweet lady. Only met Mrs. Ida a few times but in those few times I came to know what a special lady she was. She loved the Lord & it showed. Even in her illness she witnessed to others. She loved her family so much.. My son included (Kenny) her son in-law. She treated him as her own. I know the angels were rejoicing in heaven at her arrival. She is in the arms of her precious Lord & is made whole. No more sickness or pain.Praise God. She will be missed but never forgotten. Fly high sweet lady. Till we meet again. To all the family & friends.. you are in my prayers. God Bless
