James Walter Breazeale
Easley, South Carolina

James Walter Breazeale, 83, loving husband of 66 years to Betty Holcombe Breazeale, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loved ones on Thursday, January 7, 2021.

A native of Pickens County, James was born October 28, 1937, the son of the late Guy and Hattie Breazeale. Mr. Breazeale retired from John S. Clark Construction where he oversaw the building and construction of churches across the southeast. He was also a U.S. Army veteran.

Survivors include his wife Betty of the home, a daughter, Rhonda Black; a son, Stuart Breazeale (Jill); a grandson, Trent Black; and two great-granddaughters, Rylee Black and Kielyn Riddle; a brother, Carl Breazeale; a sister, Guynell Smith; and a special niece, LaVonda Bay.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Breazeale is predeceased by an infant daughter, Karen Lynne, and an infant son, David Wayne; two grandsons, Ryan Black and Travis Black; as well as five brothers and four sisters.

The family will hold a private service to honor James' life.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in James' honor may be made to St. Jude's by visiting their website at www.stjude.org, by mailing Memorial Giving, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 or by calling (800) 822-6344.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Breazeale family.
