“ The memory I have of Tim was growing up on turner st and having him and Johnny as my two other big brothers. Them three would dress up for Halloween and scare anyone that would come up on the front porch and then I would come with Keith when y'all need to work on the old cars to restore them. Now all three of yall are together again you Johnny and Keith. You will be missed and I love you my brother from another mother.

“ Tim was a wonderful friend. He and Janet are the best type of people. People who are there in your time of need. He is no longer ill. God has taken that illness away and he is running the streets of Heaven. Our deepest condolences to you Janet and the grandchildren. To Jr. and Louise and all the family. Love you all.

“ Tim and I grew up together on Glenwood Mill Hill. We were very close coming up. I remember talking on the cb radio with at his home. We would get dressed in costumes for Halloween, we even went and worked at a spook house one year. Wow we had so much fun. I thought the world of Grace, Sam and Tim they always treated me like family. I know he's in Heaven with the Lord now. Spread you wing and fly Tim no worries now. My deepest condolences to his family. Little Jim Godfrey
