“ Jim was the most amazing (true) friend I've ever known. He was extremely generous, and very kind to everyone. He would give the shirt off his back to anyone who needed it. I will miss him dearly the rest of my life.

“ John and I were very blessed to have met Jim and Sarah when Brennen and our Son Anthony were in band. In the fall one of our fundraisers was the sale of fruit which was always a big hit. I was the treasurer of the booster club so I always worked the table where people paid for their fruit and I always tried to set it up to where we were working the table with Jim and Sarah. Needless to say, we were all fast friends. Living in the Bible Belt, finding fellow Democrats was a wonderful thing! Oh how we tried to solve the problems of the world..... Jim and Sarah are just real people and it's a real pleasure to call them our Friends. It's been a very sad day in our house today. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Sarah, Brennen, and Brennens new husband Ryan. If there is anything we can do please let us know. We love you all very much!

“ Jim had been my friend since a very early age, beginning on the pews of Shoal Creek Baptist church. We took turns going to each other's house to play. We drew pictures on the church bulletin and giggled during church a lot. We were baptized at the same time. We went to school together; first at Qualla, then onto High School although sort of going our separate ways. But Jim never forgot his friends and kept in touch over the years, more so lately with Facebook. I will miss his emails and thoughts/ opinions that he shared. We had some good conversations. Jim loved to reminisce. Jim loved his wife, Sarah and daughter, Brennen, was his little girl that he would have gone to the ends of the earth for. He loved you both dearly. He will be missed greatly and I pray that God bestow some peace and comfort during this time of sorrow.

“ I don't think about growing up on Shoal Creek and Qualla Community without thinking of Jim. He was like another brother to me. He and Eric were always getting into something. One such time was when Jim's cat had three kittens. Dad said we could have one since we didn't have a cat. Eric and Jim got to talking and agreed that one cat would be lonely so they decided to bring two cats, then, realizing the kitten left would be lonely, they brought all three kittens to our house. Thus began the long saga of Hyatt barn cats.
We have so many memories to treasure. He was easy to laugh, had a quick wit and great to be around. A wonderful guy. I regret not keeping in touch as much over the years.
He'll be missed and you are all in our hearts and prayers.

“ Sarah,
I am so sorry for your loss. I will always be grateful for how you and Jim took Ryan in and treated him like a son. You both have raised a wonderful, beautiful and loving daughter. When I think about Jim, it will always come to mind that he could never meet a stranger, he could and would talk to anyone. That is a gift that not too many people have. You will be in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Lisa and Jim Ritter
