To

Matthew and family, Larry and Sheila, I only learned of Janet's passing today. Janet was my first cousin and I loved her dearly and am so sorry for your loss. Janet and Matthew were close to my mom who passed away in 2007 and they visited her frequently when she was in a nursing home and she thought so much of both of them. I haven't lived in Portsmouth for 10 years. I moved to Salem and have been in assisted living since since Doug passed away. In 2014. The last time I ever heard from Dan was in 2007 at the graveside for our mother's burial service. I moved here, near where a cousin lives so that when my life comes to an end there will be someone to claim my remains. Again, I'm so very sorry for your loss. God bless each and everyone of you always
