

Jason Avery Kemp

December 2, 1978 - June 29, 2024

Jason Avery Kemp
Easley, South Carolina

Jason Avery Kemp, 45, passed away on Saturday, June 29, 2024, at his residence.

Born December 2, 1978, in Montevallo, Alabama, Jason was the son of Teresa D. Bailey. Jason loved all types of cars, but especially loved Porsches and Volkswagens. He collected diecast cars and that's what he always wanted for Christmas. He spent his spare time working in his shop. He was a very neat, organized, and independent person. He was a very good and loving son and brother. He loved his family dearly, especially his nieces and nephews.

Survivors include his mother, Teresa D. Bailey of Greenville; his stepfather who raised him, John Bailey; brother, Russell Cummings (Tammy) of Belton; nephews, Blake and Bryant; nieces, Breanna and Brittany; great-niece Kali; and his most precious additional nieces and nephews; these were all the children he ever wanted.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Jason's honor may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital by visiting their website at www.stjude.org.

Mountain View Funeral Home – Pickens Chapel is serving the Kemp family.

“ Jason always had such a great sense of humor, loved his Volkswagen's, his family. We grew up together, all my greatest childhood memories are with Jason and his brother Rusty. I love you Jason!

“ Teresa,
There are no words that can be said to give you peace at this moment. Just take one moment at a time, do not try to plan days just moments, "Lord get me through this moment" was my constant prayer. Drink lots of water to replenish the hydration from the tears are you are losing. Try to eat at least a cracker before taking more headache medication. These are the things I concentrated on to stay a little focused, but you find yours. I Love you sweet lady and soo soo Sorry you are having to feel this Pain! It is indescribable and you will never ever understand ! There is no answer to the question "WHY?". I will be right here when you are ready to scream!!!
