“ One of my favorite memories of Aunt Jean was how sweet she was to our son Tyler when he was at Ravenel. She was very gentle with him and helped him in the lunch line and also kept an eye on him around the school when she could. He was very shy and needed extra encouragement and guidance, so it was a big comfort to him and to us. She was a very special lady and will be missed.

“ Jessica, Allan and family. That woman was a great one. Never keep anything to herself always to you what she thought. I can remember the day I meet her she said Donna we are gonna be good to each other because we are alot alike. Made my heart full. She has lived a life full of joy with her family. She spoke highly of you all and that is what family is. I know you all are gonna miss her but just think she is your ANGEL now and will be with y'all and all times. Love you all and MAY GOD WRAP HIS LOVING ARMS AROUND EACH AND EVERYONE OF Y'ALL. MAY SHE REST IN PEACE!!!
