“ Dear Joyce & Danny,
I don't even know where to begin there's so, much that could be said about Jeff. He was such a sweet, loving young man. No matter where Jeff & I ran up on each other he would always give me a big hug. That was the way he was & I know I'll miss those hugs and think of him often. But, one day we'll be together again & then I won't ever have to miss those big hugs and that sweet smile ever again. My heart  hurts for the loss of this precious young man. Our families go back a long way. Katina & Jeff was classmates and Betina & Georgette were classmates too. Precious Memories. George & I want all the family to know that we've been praying   for you all & will continue to. You all have our  Love and Deepest Sympathy. May God Continue To Give You The Comfort & Peace Always. Lovingly, George and Elaine Edwards

“ My thoughts and prayers for the family, My heart is broken for all of you guys. I met Jeff in 7th grade instant friendship. of course i dont think he could meet any one and not be their friend before leaving. since then the inside joke between us, it did not matter where we were at. I will truly miss seeing him running into him at gass station or at spanglers for saturday morning breakfast, or the saturday morning gossip. May he rest in peace.

“ I knew Jeff through his children coming to the elementary school where I worked. He was such a personable young man, one you would automatically enjoy chatting with when he came into the office. Our world has been diminished by his passing, but heaven is much richer with his presence there. Kasey, Taylor, Lexi, Charlee, Joyce, and Danny my heart is deeply saddened for you. May God comfort you with His everlasting peace.

“ Such a wonderful young man with a great family. I knew him since he was a round 4 or 5. Danny and Joyce and Betina , although I rarely see them, I consider one of my extended families. May God bless you all and prayers for his lovely wife and daughters. I will miss running across Jeff and laughing and talking with him. Heaven is a little brighter now and we will all have the pleasure of spending time with him again one fine day when the Lord calls the rest of us home.
