“ The year I was a summer missionary to Chicago, we had a frightening encounter with someone on drugs banging on the door. It was the middle of the night, and I had come from small town Arkansas, so it made me very afraid. Dear Aunt Jackie used the experience to teach me that God did not give us a spirit of fear. She pointed me directly to scripture with a reminder that God would take care of us, and He did. I cannot tell you how many times the Lord has brought that memory back to me when situations have caused me anxiety. She was such a godly example. I will miss her dearly, but I know I will see her again....and I am sure she is up in heaven giving my daddy a hard time now...
