“ Randy was more than a best friend, more than a Brother, he was Family, over 30 years of a friendship unconditional.. Randy had one priority next to making sure he was Heaven bound, and that priority was to be a family man and the best and the best a family man could be, I'm grateful to Randy for his friends wasn't just some one he knew his friends were his family his children are his best friends, to be his friend ment you was his family no in-between about it, so to all of you who was is friend know you are his family,. Randy and I always cut up joking each other about who was taking flight first that to which ever between he and I that has to take the later flight had to do the eulogy for the other he would laugh and laugh and say, so what are you going to say and know that he could hear me, I'd say in return well I got your atavan, he would frown while I'd laugh so hard, these were the days we always had we always laughed even at each other, Randy I got a atavan, lol, I love you brother prepare my place next to you at our lords super table because I'm going to come hungry...

“ I have always loved Randy since the day we met I was six and he was seven when my sister married his uncle Mickey. I had the best times in the Holliday family especially at Christmas at Nanny's. I will miss Randy I know his family was waiting for him at the gates of Heaven "Glory to God". I will be praying for all his children and grandchildren for the Lord to carry you and strengthen you.
