“ Diane and Gene, Joe and Kathy, Mark and Janet, Sisters and Husbands, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and extended family, Some of my favorite memories of Bill are of Ravan Clan family gatherings and the laughter everyone shared. The best laugh in the whole crowd was that of Uncle Bill. He always had a smile and a story to share. For all of the children, he always had a coin to give (many time, the coins would be silver dollars). Bill enjoyed his life, made our lives a little bit brighter, and helped all of understand what it means to be independent. He loved and expressed great pride in his children, their spouses, his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren. Sending everyone prayers of peace and support.
