

Judy Alexander Black

December 13, 1949 - October 3, 2021

Judy Alexander Black
Pickens, South Carolina

Judy Alexander Black, age 71, loving wife of Jerry Black, passed away Sunday, October 3, 2021, at Manna Health and Rehab Center in Pickens.

A native of Pickens County, Mrs. Black was born December 13, 1949, a daughter of the late Morris C. Alexander and Gig Alexander. Judy loved her customers at Garren's Café especially the children. Judy was fun loving, loved a good time, and could always remember orders.

Survivors include her husband, Jerry Black of the home; step children, Jim Black (Shae) of Easley, Jerry Black (John) of Lake City, Florida, Jennifer Cantrell (Jason) of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Valorie Moore (Stephen) of Simpsonville; seven grandchildren; a special friend Melanie Davis, and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Mrs. Black was predeceased by her father, Morris C. Alexander.

Visitation services will take place on Thursday, October 7, 2021 from 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM in the chapel of Mountain View Funeral Home with a funeral service to follow starting at 2:00 PM with the Reverend Joey Capps officiating the service. The family has requested that those who come to the service to dress in casual attire.

In lieu of flowers memorials in Mrs. Black's honor may be made to Red Hill Baptist Church located at 558 Red Hill Road, Pickens, South Carolina 29671.

Mountain View Funeral Home is assisting the Black family.
