August 16, 1945 - February 21, 2025

Judith Joanna Mathis Fowler
Pickens, South Carolina

The death of Judith Joanna Mathis Fowler, 79 years old, of Pickens, SC, native of Haywood County North Carolina died on February 21, 2025. Judy was the daughter of Virginia Mathis and John Mathis and was married to the late Ernest Lynn Fowler for 45 years. She resided with her youngest daughter, Marlanea Fowler, and husband, Stacy Collins. She is survived by her oldest daughter Shirley Rogers of South Carolina. Her grandchildren Justin Dies, Tabitha Foster, Mark Rogers and Tommy Rogers. She also spent years loving her great grandchildren Stella Dies and Braylin Gerrish. Also, outlived by many loved nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will grieve dearly.

Judy was a smart, giving, and beautiful woman who enjoyed her family, traveling, scientific wonders, tv and coloring. Her favorite TV channels were SyFy, National Geographic channel, and watching TikTok and Youtube. She loved watching her birds and squirrels on the porch with always a cup of coffee in her hand. She has visited Yellow Stone, the Wild West, and has traveled many other locations across the United States where she left her mark as well as in the hearts of the family and friends she has left behind to explore the beyond.

She wanted her legacy to be left with those who were affected by flooding from recent events in Virginia. In lieu of flowers, all proceeds go to Hillcrest Baptist Church Mission Team for West Virginia.

“ I was like a sister in law to Judy. We became close and I enjoyed visits with her and Marlanea and Stacy. We also enjoyed talking on the phone. I loved her colorings and she was so kind and gentle. I will miss her dearly and will Love her always.
