“ Awe:( I am very sorry for you and your family’s loss! It’s been years, but I, too, have fond memories of Brother Holloway. He was a great man who loved the Lord and it showed!

What comes to mind first, is how much that man smiled! He was always smiling! I fondly recall the sweet, loving way in which he welcomed each and every soul who walked through the doors of DCOG, whether they were a member or not. With a joyful heart, and of course, a smile, he made me and my family feel loved for many years 😊

Sadly, I know that Brother Holloways’ presence will truly be missed by all who knew him here on this earth, but he is way better off than any of us are, isn’t he?

So I am sending love and prayers to you all today, and may God bless you and keep you in His tender, loving care.

“ Juke. WOW!! You made it to be older than your Mom!! You taught me how to correctly wash a car. Make sure you wash the tires, wheels and wheel wells! And dry it off to keep the water spots off. Your smile was contagious and your heart was big as Texas. I know without a doubt you loved us 3 kids of Bill Stephens. There was never a question. I love you and there will never be another one like you. I know you have angels carrying your crowns. I'll see you soon.
