

Kathleen May Rumler

June 25, 1951 - April 10, 2025

Kathleen May Rumler
Liberty, South Carolina

Kathleen May Rumler, age 73, passed away on Wednesday, April 10, 2025, at her home, surrounded by family.

Born June 25, 1951, in Brooklyn, New York, Kathleen was the beloved daughter of the late James Vincent Gormly and Simone Gabrielle Basset Gormly. A gifted artist with a creative soul, Kathleen found joy in crafting and expressing herself through her art. She had a deep appreciation for nature—cherishing flowers, nurturing plants, and spending peaceful moments birdwatching. Kathleen also had a love for British television, particularly period dramas, which reflected her appreciation for history and storytelling.

Survivors include her son, Jason Barone of Liberty; daughter, Rachel Eades of Easley; grandchildren, Lauren, Zayden, and Cadence; siblings, Gerald, Eileen, and Dorothy; Chanse, who was like a son to Kathleen; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Kathleen was predeceased by a son, David Barone, and her siblings, Robert, Richard, Marguerite, Frances, Jacqueline, Elizabeth, Violet, and James.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to Hospice of the Upstate for the exceptional care, compassion, and support they provided to Kathleen during her final days.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Rumler family.

She was Kath to me. Loved her from the day we met. We had more fun and great times as preteens biking hopscotch skating swimming we did everything together. When we hit teens boys Beatles sleep overs. We were both married going but always kept in touch. I was welcomed into her family and lobbied it so. Many of my great memories not only are with Kath but the entire Gormly crew. Smile's

“ As are we all, Kathleen was an imperfect human being but as a baby sister she was perfect. Heaven will definitely be more interesting with her there. She will be missed here but they are going to love having her there

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. I remember Aunt Kathleen giving me my first short haircut and babysitting us way back when. I remember her feeding Jason in his high chair and explaining his casts to me. Her selling Avon and giving me the tiny sample lipsticks as child. So much time has passed since I have seen her. I remember her wedding pictures in our backyard. She will be forever in her twenties when I think of her. May she rest in peace. Love Linda. Romeo now Galvin. Aunt Fran and Uncle Tony’s youngest
