“ We will greatly miss Mrs. Katie. She always made us feel welcome at Porters Chapel when we visited there. She loved her church and her church family and had a quick wit and warmth to share with those who attended Porters Chapel. We will always remember how she and Gail Grant convinced the men at Porters to hold a womanless beauty pageant on Valentine's Day; she loved it! Praying for her family. Mike and Beverly Jenkins

“ Linda, Debbie and all family members, I am so sorry to hear about Katie's passing. My heart breaks yet again. There will be no more pain for her as she is with our Lord. Katie was always there when needed always doing for others. She always made me laugh no matter what was going on. My sweet Danny had rather pick at her than to eat a big meal ! I'm sure they are celebrating now ! You will be missed sweet Katie. Tina Epps
