“ It's been 4 months since you left us and my heart is still in a million pieces. From the day you were born, you were the apple of our eyes. Uncle Keith misses you so much boo boo. This world sucks without you. You'll always be my little angel and I love you more than life itself. Rest in peace my little darling.

“ It was an honor and privilege to be your Uncle. From the moment you were born, you had a hold on my heart. So loving and kind and accepting of those whom are different. You used to crawl up in my lap with a book for me to read to you and in just doing that, you had me wrapped around your little finger. Uncle Keith won't soon forget that loving heart and soul. Now, you touch the face of God and he holds you in his arms forever. I love you so much boo boo.

“ I had the awesome ability to birth and raise you. Did it by myself but nothing ever kept mama from being there at all times through your short 24 yrs. I love you my baby girl Blair Bagwell from your mama DENISE BAGWELL. YOU ARE MY ANGEL.

“ I had the great fortune to meet Kenya only a few weeks ago. She had a smile that would turn your day around. I can't express how broken my heart is, over someone I barely knew. But there was something about Kenya, that gave me hope. I saw hope in her, and I will forever be thankful that I was lucky enough to know Kenya Bagwell.

“ I recall baby sitting my beautiful niece as a toddler. I used to make her scrambled eggs, fried wienies and sit her in front of the TV to watch Teletubbies. I'll never get over the loss of my beautiful niece. She was unapologetically Blair, she loved people and she loved her family. She loves Finn, Caroline and Greg so much, her face would light up when she spoke of them. Uncle Keith loves you baby girl, I'll never forget you. Rest in Peace Angel
