“ I didn't know this was here. My dear sweet Mama. I miss you so much. I miss your smile and your laughter. I miss seeing you read your Bible, singing your hymns and your praying. I wish I could see that smile and hear your voice. I wish you were here so we could pray together. I simply wish you were here. I know you're in a better place. I truthfully wouldn't want to have you here if you were suffering. Those last days were horrible for you and so hard to see you that way. I love you so much! Goodbye for now. I will see you soon.

“ So very sorry about this, Linda. We both lost our mothers just hours apart. You mother always had a big smile for me, and we three laughed together every time we went to see her. She is missed, but you know that she is not in pain anymore. Knowing that doesn't mend a broken heart, but you can take a little comfort in it-I know I do. You know I'm here for you, as I know that you are for me...
