Wayne and I were in Mrs. Earle's first grade class at Pine Street Elementary School. We brought our lunch from home. For whatever reason we, along with other kids that brought lunch, were left in the classroom by themselves instead of being taken to the lunchroom with everyone else. Things sometimes got out of hand as one can imagine. One day I was chasing Wayne around in circles and he ran headfirst into the corner of a desk. I think he probably still has a scar in the middle of his forehead! Mrs. Earle had to interrupt her lunch and come back to the room. She tried her best to literally beat the devil out of both of us but I don't think it worked.

Everyone in the Class of 1968 remembers Wayne fondly as a good person and loyal friend.

Wayne will be missed so much by the ones left behind. Today, he can breathe and his heart ❤️ is being blessed by the Lord himself and we're s o happy for him that he was saved and joined Gail in heaven. Howard and I will miss him so, but yes we had lots of fun in school together and are so glad he was a part of our wedding in '68. He had a beautiful family and Ellen loved him so. Rest in Peace!
