“ We would have our Goldsmith Reunions at Marietta First Baptist Church and Aunt Lucille, Uncle James, Judy and Ray would be up there to get everything set up the tables and chairs. I would go up there and help them and we would have a great time just setting everything up. Then other family would start coming in and we would just start catching up. Aunt Lucille and Judy has games for us to play. It was so much fun. I will miss her so much. My heart is so broken. Praying for the family through this difficult time.
