“ Goodness it's impossible to share just one, there are so many special memories of Homer, Sissy and Burrell but ones I will cherish for the rest of my life. They were often there for us as kids when our family was struggling. For that I'll be forever grateful. They were all loving and faithful to us through it all. My heart is saddened by the temporary separation but what a glorious day they had being reunited with each other and seeing the Father. May we all look forward to our day of rejoicing! Prayers for the remaining family in the days ahead.
