“ Mark was part of our family at Aunt Sue's, always willing to help and always treated us with kindness and love. He loved the Ribs and Chicken and always was quick to make us laugh. He did not leave us, he just went on before us and we will see him again in Heaven. So...so long for now, we will see you again soon friend. Always with love, Ed, Teresa and all the Aunt Sue's staff.

HE

Mark was my first cousin and he and I grew up together, Had a Lotta good times, We were partners in crime together. He was always a part of my life through all the years that I struggle with addiction. he was always there, encouraging me. I think the good Lord for having him in my life. I'm so thankful and grateful, that I got to be A part of his life. It was really hard to see him in his last days. But I know that he is with the good Lord. And he'll be waiting for me until I get there. I love and miss you Mark.
