“ My sweet Weezy, so many wonderful memories and of vacation trips together! Silk sheets and a silk gown do not mix, when trying to sleep. Oh what fun that was. Not counting get your kitties. LOL May be too much to share, but it was a lot of laughter for us all. One of the sweetest times was at Christmas she drew my name and gave me the Bionic Woman Barbie aka Lindsey Wagner. I got two for Christmas that year and my friend in elementary school's house burned down. (we both were big fans) :) I asked if she would mind if I gave her the one she gave me. My sweet Weezy said no, that is very sweet of you. She and Uncle Bud were so good to so many of us, especially to me and Jane. Knowing you are in Heaven singing, see Jesus' sweet face, hearing God's voice and all of the Angel's is a place we all want to see and then our family members from here. You made it first! I can't wait to see you again one day. I hope you know how much you were loved! I will miss you, always!!! Ardie
