

Melva Jo Haley

August 27, 1934 - May 31, 2023

Melva Jo (Brumbelow) Haley
Easley, South Carolina

Melva Jo (Brumbelow) Haley went to heaven on Wednesday, May 31, 2023 to be with her husband, Lawrence Dewitt Haley; her son, Norman David Williams; parents, Joseph Milton Brumbelow and Etta Grace (Jones) Brumbelow; her brother, Milton Brumbelow; grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and numerous friends who loved her. She leaves behind two daughters, Sandra (Williams) Canup and Jana Haley-Coeburn, grandchildren, Scott Canup, Todd Canup, Melissa (Williams) Harris, Tamilyn (Williams) Ladder (Thomas), Amber (Williams) Lancaster (Brandon), Paul Whaley, Elizabeth (Whaley) Parker (Robin), and Thomas Whaley Jr. (Kelsey), and 10 great-grandchildren, her sister, Frances Brumbelow Blalock and her brother, Preston Brumbelow, and many nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Jo was born on August 27, 1934 in Rome, Georgia at McCall's hospital. She was a premature baby, weighing less than 4 lbs. They had an incubator at the hospital that had not been used until her birth. She was always told that God meant for her to be on this earth. When they took her home after 6 weeks, she was carried around on a pillow and fed with a medicine dropper. She was a feisty redhead, a talented hairdresser, seamstress and a good cook. She was a fine Christian woman, a wonderful mother and a good sister. She loved her family, music and at one time was a talented pianist and singer. She loved her Lord and Savior and was a faithful church member of Green Acres Baptist Church of Georgia, Milford Baptist Church of Georgia, and Brushy Creek Baptist Church of South Carolina.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to Brushy Creek Baptist Church for their Lottie Moon Christmas Offering: 100 Clay Street, Easley, SC 29642.

Mountain View Funeral Home – Pickens Chapel is serving the Haley family.
