May 1, 1948 - June 10, 2024

Melvin Alexander (Pudd'n)
Sunset, South Carolina

Melvin Alexander (Pudd'n), 76, loving husband of 41 years to Carole Alexander, passed away on Monday, June 10, 2024, at his home.

Born May 1, 1948, in Pickens, South Carolina, Melvin was the son of the late Walter Alexander and Lelia Dutton Alexander. Melvin loved his family dearly. He enjoyed playing softball and he was an avid fisherman. He loved watching golf and watching the Clemson Tigers and Atlanta Braves.

Survivors include his wife, Carole Alexander of the home; a son, Jon Byers (Shannon) of Vale, NC; a daughter, Amanda Stewart (Jay) of Sunset, SC; grandchildren, Keagan Black (Katie), Daulten Stewart (Anna), Cole Stewart, Tanna Stewart, Sara Byers, Greg Lowman, Dylan Lowman, and Tommy Pace; great-grandchildren, Emma Black, Mary Beth Black, Jonah, Brooklyn, Trinity, and baby girl Stewart on the way; a brother, Larry Alexander; daughter of the heart, Diane Fowler; hospice aid, Jackie; and many loving friends and family members.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Alexander was predeceased by a granddaughter, Hyland Byers; a sister, Mamie Lou; and three brothers,

Charles Alexander, Jerry Alexander, and Robert Alexander.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers or donations, the family of Mr. Alexander asks that he be honored and remembered by spending quality time with a child by teaching them how to fish, play ball or having a tea party with them.

Mountain View Funeral Home – Pickens Chapel is serving the Alexander family.

“ Carole, I am saddened to hear of Pudd'n passing but he's whole again! Pudd'n made me cry a few months ago talking about The Feed Room. He said "Martha you made this grown man tear up!" Well he made me tear up again today but it's happy tears for him. May God bless you now and through the days ahead / until you meet again. What a man! And a friend to all! My mom said she worked with Pudd'n at Ryobi/Singer and he always had a smile! Let us go forward with a smile, these sweet memories and love for family and friends! Give my love to Amanda.
