“ Mike and I shared many musical moments and daily teacher's moments in the 15 years I was blessed to work with this humble man. God has another poet in His presence now and although we haven't worked together in six years, I miss his peaceful commentary. God bless his family and thanks for sharing him with our world. “ Michael and Angie, our prayers during this time of grief for your family. I know that Mike gave each of you one of the most precious gift he could give to his family and that is his love for God. As he made his journey into the presence of God he was welcomed with open arms. A gift that can never be taken away and one each of you will always cherish him and his love and thankful for the peace each of you have in your hearts. Praise God for this Godly man..

“ Mike will be terribly missed by his family as well as his church family. Mike was my RA Counselor as I was growing up. Myself (as well as those RA's who have now grown older, and some who now reside in the presence of the LORD with Mike) have some funny, and wonderful memories with Mike. Memories that range between what Mike is going to be killing and eating at McCall RA Camp this year, Mike becoming horrified to stay in that “cabin number 9”, to Mike telling us RA's on Wednesday night that he will one day be rich; because he thinks one day tennis shoes will light up when you walk (boy was he ever sad when he did patient that). You see when a GOD fearing, knowledgeable man, such as Mike was is put in a position to teach younger people the ways of Christ, the students will never forget their mentor. However looking back on it now as we have grown older, as we all have matured and are now able to understand that it was not Mike's wisdom and intelligence that was teaching us the way of our LORD Jesus Christ. It was our LORD JESUS Christ who was working through Mike! Mike I believe I speak for all of us RA's and everyone else that you had a part of our lives. Thank you for showing us “the way”, thank you for sacrificing your time for us without any complaints, and thank you for being a devoted mentor. Sleep on you child of GOD, for we now know that you are residing in the Glory Land with our LORD, Jesus Christ! Rest easy my friend.....Joey Baldwin
