“ My Sweet Mikel I just got the call today and was informed of your passing. I am so hurt that I didn't find out when everything happened. I will always cherish the memories we had. You were a very sweet person that would give the shirt off your back to anyone that was in need. When I met you back in 2011 at dollar general we clicked instantly. You always had a smile on your face that lit up the whole room. I can hear your voice right now and every time we spoke or saw one another your last words was always I Love You... So whatever pain you was in my friend you are no longer hurting or suffering jus know u are missed by many and I Love you my friend

“ Mikel, a close friend, who loved whole heartily, and thrived on helping others. Her laugh tickled your soul, and her energy lightened a room. The passion she lived life in will be the passion that engraves the memory of her beauty and love in our hearts forever.

"For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and melt into the sun?

And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance." Khalil Gibran

Rest in peace, Mikel. And in our hearts you will always be.
