Patricia Marguerite Cassell
Six Mile, South Carolina

Patricia Marguerite Cassell, age 72, loving wife of 45 years to Johnson “John” Merrill Cassell, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, at PruittHealth – Pickens.

Born August 23, 1953, in Salina, Kansas, Patricia was the beloved daughter of the late Benhardt Alexander Flegler and Margaret Waterbury Flegler. She found joy in life’s simple pleasures, especially fishing and working through word puzzles. A woman of faith, she loved studying the Bible and deepening her understanding of God’s word. Patricia also had a passion for exploring family history through genealogy research, cherishing the stories and connections of generations past. Above all, she adored her puppies, who brought her endless love and companionship.

Survivors include her husband, Johnson “John” Cassell of the home; son, Christopher Wade Hampton (Linda) of Lake Charles, LA; stepsons, Matt Cassell of Liberty, and Dave Cassell of Texas; grandchildren, John Robert Hampton and Stephani Ann Hampton; great-grandson, William Ivan Hampton; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Cassell was predeceased by her brother, Patrick Flegler.

Visitation will be held on Sunday, September 28, 2025, from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM in the chapel of Mountain View Funeral Home in Pickens with a funeral service to follow at 3:00 PM. Burial will follow the service in Holly Springs Baptist Church Cemetery.
