“ Scott and I had the opportunity to watch all the Flaughter children grow up in Calvary Chapel. Nathan was always a friendly, smiling young man with a kind heart. He will be missed . I share these pictures of the day Nathan was baptized in the cattle tank behind Calvary Chapel of Pickens.

“ I met Nathan on several occasions with my son Austin. Nathan definitely did light up a room with his personality and charm. I know Nathan and Austin had so much they were excited about in these coming weeks and months. I just want to lift out my hand in prayer for this family and friends today and the coming weeks ahead will not be easy. Nathan I know you have touched so many lives and just with the few times I met you you have left great memories of a smart caring , full of life young man. Cindy McGuire

“ Nathan was a very special young man. He brought joy with his contagious smile. Nathan thought of others before himself. I met him by having a new roof installed on my house. From that day forward I knew I had a friend. Both Linsey and Nathan showed nothing but love for each other that radiated to people around them. Nathan, you will be missed, but not forgotten. We love you! Dario, Janet Silva and family.
