“ Even though Randall was blind in one eye, the baseball group from church came to play in the field across from our home. They were short players and ask Randall to play. With one pitch he hit the ball clear across the field. Everyone wanted him on their team! He was so proud and happy.

“ Sitting with Randall and his companion cat during last few months of his lifes struggle. He always was strong spirited even though he was nearing the end. My last words when I'd leave was I love u and don't forget it. Spent lots of years working at Ryobi with him. We all will miss him. Prayer sent for his families that r left behind. RIP cousin Randall Smith
