Rayford Douglas "Ray" Hart
Pickens SC

Rayford Douglas "Ray" Hart, 75, of Pickens, passed away on April 2, 2020 after an extended illness.

Ray was born to Bill and Mary Hart of Travelers Rest, SC on June 24, 1944. A proud 1962 graduate of Travelers Rest High School, Ray followed in his father's footsteps and worked in the automotive sales industry for over sixty years. He never retired.

Ray was an accomplished bowler who loved trout fishing, NASCAR, old westerns, long rides in the mountains, corny jokes, and banana popsicles. Ray is predeceased by his parents. Surviving are his loving wife and devoted caretaker of 43 years Frances Brown Hart of the home; daughter Kimberly (Terry) Morsett of Raymond, NE; daughter Julia Yager of Longmont, CO; son Joseph (Cora) Hart of Yukon, OK; daughter Becky Hart of Greenville, SC; son Joshua Hart of Pickens, SC; grandchildren Jerica Hart, Dale (Tabitha) Hart, Allen Morsett, Lee Morsett, Brandy Yager, Maggie Hart, and Vivian Hart; great – grandchildren Scarlett Hart, Adeline Hart, and Hazel Hart; sister Joanne Haynes; brother Ed Hart; and sister Linda (Bill) Risher.

The family wishes to extend their sincere appreciation to all those who cared for Ray during the last five months, especially the caring and committed staff at St Francis Hospital Downtown and Regency Hospital in Greenville, Manna

Health and Rehab in Pickens, and Interim Healthcare.

There will be a private graveside service held at Griffin Baptist Church Cemetery on Sunday, April 5, 2020 for immediate family only.

Mountain View Funeral Home in Pickens is serving the Hart family.
