Regina Cagle Clardy
Six Mile, South Carolina

Regina Cagle Clardy, also known as Charlie, passed peacefully into the arms of her savior, Jesus Christ, on November 24, 2023, at the age of 55 in Six Mile, South Carolina. She was born on October 1, 1968, in Rome, Georgia, to the late Elbert Franklin Cagle and Shella Ruth Herrin Cagle.

Regina will be dearly missed and lovingly remembered by her surviving family members. She is survived by her devoted sister, Vicki Andrews (Dean) of Liberty, SC, and her brother, Tony Cagle (Sandra) of Six Mile, SC. Regina is also survived by her beloved sons, Corey Clardy (Lauren) of Pickens, SC, and Brandon Clardy (Haliey) of Liberty, SC. Her greatest joy in life came from being a loving Gigi to McKenzie, Reagan, Brailyn, Lane, Lola, Kamryn, Rylee Kate, and Landon. Regina also leaves behind a host of nephews and a niece, whom she held dear to her heart. She was deeply grateful for the friendship and companionship of Larry Alexander, who was a true source of comfort and support to her.

Regina received her education at Liberty High School, graduating with the class of 1986 and worked as a unit secretary at Baptist Easley Hospital and Greenville Memorial Hospital for many years.

The family is grateful for the many caretakers at PruittHealth who poured into her life and cared for her.

In honoring Regina's memory, it is requested as a gesture of remembrance and compassion that visits, cards, or phone calls be made to someone you know in a nursing home.

Mountain View Funerals and Cremations - Pickens Chapel is serving the Clardy family.
