“ Well Rena...sorry it took me awhile to post my thoughts...we were friends for a long time and like Doris said you knew all my secrets...Remember when we first met when you were working at Farmers...the we started hanging out and trying places to eat, riding around in your car with the T-tops...then I met your mom and Ray, then some other friends, Doris, Debra Sue, Katie, Susan and our lives became woven together...we even attended church together a few times, lol...you and Doris came to my wedding and I was in yours and Thomas'....and sadly I was the funeral director when you had to bury him...but thankfully you found love again with Ben...Now, you are reunited with all the ones who have gone on ahead which is a lot...the rest of us will be along shortly...Soar with the eagles my friend...so glad you are complete and whole now...ever so often just fly by so we know you're near...Much love too you Rena...you will be missed and never forgotten!!!

“ I loved her like a sister. Our families always looked after all us girls. When we were young during the first gas shortage “Pero” always made sure we had gas for my car because he knew we loved to ride the roads on the weekend lol. Rena was always there when I needed her & I am at a loss for what to do now, she was my last friend that knew all my secrets. The world & my life will never be the same.
