“ Robert was a hard worker and his lifelong job was working at sawmills. He loved to run the loader and anything pertaining to wood logs suited him the best. Jimmy Lee has known Robert his entire life and he and his family were patrons of Dodgens Grocery at Nine Times. Robert and his brother Bill helped his mother at the store until his father recuperated from a broken back. We were privileged to look after him for several years as he lived a dedicated Christian life.

*Rest In Peace Robert you were a good man with a loving heart.
