“Denise and Baldwin children, Murray and I send our most sincere sympathy in the loss of your Husband and father. We have always appreciated your family and in earlier days the friendships that we shared were cherished. One of a parent’s greatest accomplishments is his children. As an elementary teacher to the Baldwin children, I know of Ron’s joy and delight in his children. Denise, we will support you in love as you journey grief in the days ahead. May you all have comfort.
