

Ronald Duane Langham

March 14, 1938 - March 6, 2017

In loving memory of Ronald Duane Langham. Beloved husband of deceased wife Melba. Beloved father, brother, grandfather and friend. Ron loved his horses, and loved his muscle hot rod cars. He loved fishing also. He enjoyed having his dump truck business and his nickname was Flip-Flop. He was a very hard worker. When he was younger, he served in the USAir Force and had an Honorable discharge. He lost his wife Melba to soon and he raised three girls on his own. He was a cancer survivor! Ron was an honest and straight forward man but caring unto others. His family has the utmost respect for this man! He is soo loved by his family. We will truly miss him!

Survivors are Daughters, Kim Langham Campbell(Ronnie) , Kristen Leigh Langham, and Lisa Langham Black(Steve). Grandchildren are Kara and Ian Black and Caleb and Chase Black. Great grand child is Kesley Black.

Survivors also include sister Beverly Grubb and her sons Derek and Darin Grubb.

Mr. Langham was predeceased by his wife and parents.

A Graveside service with military honors will be conducted 11:00 am Thursday March 09, 2017 at Hillcrest Memorial Park and Gardens.

Pallbearers are Steve Black, Ian Black, Caleb Black, Noah Black, and Justin Kelley.

Mountain View Funerals and Cremations is serving the Langham family.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Ron, I worked at King Asphalt for over 12 years and he was one of our lease drivers and I figured his pay each week, he was always very courteous and polite and spoke often of his girls. He told me about raising them on his own, and I had the uttermost respect to him for doing that. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Joyce Roper

Joyce Roper - March 08, 2017 at 02:16 PM