Ruby Ramey

Six Mile, South Carolina

Ruby Ramey, age 86, passed away on Tuesday, December 30, 2025, at Edisto Post Acute.

Born on May 21, 1939, in Pickens, South Carolina, Ruby was the beloved daughter of the late Jess Samson Ramey and Thessie Cornelia Chapman Ramey. She devoted many years of her life to Alice Manufacturing, where she worked faithfully as a weaver before retiring.

Ruby was a loving and devoted mother to her three children, and her life was marked by strength, resilience, and an unwavering work ethic. She knew the value of hard work, having spent countless hours helping in the fields and chopping wood, never shying away from what needed to be done. Despite a life of labor, Ruby found joy in caring for her family, especially through her gift for cooking, which brought comfort and warmth to those she loved.

Ruby is survived by her son, James Ramey of Pickens, and many loving nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Ms. Ramey was predeceased by a son, Don

Ramey; a daughter, Cornelia Ramey; brothers, Earl Jackson Ramey, Hubert Ramey, and Ray Ramey; and a sister, Azilee Blakenship.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Ramey family.
