

Samuel Barry Brezeale

March 31, 1942 - January 16, 2025

Samuel Barry Brezeale
Pickens, South Carolina

Samuel Barry Brezeale, 82, of Pickens passed away Thursday, January 16, 2025, at his home, after bravely fighting a fierce battle with lung cancer.

Born to the late Bruce and Alma Willimon Brezeale, Sam was a member of Red Hill Baptist Church and attended Northside Baptist Church in Pickens. He was a former co-owner of B&B Express Trucking and Hank & Sam's Gulf and Wrecker Service. Sam was a United States Navy veteran.

Surviving are his daughter, Kimberly (Robby) Wood and her mother, Dianne Moon Hodge, all of Tigerville, SC; a grandson, Trey (Ansley) Wood of Travelers Rest; a granddaughter, Hayden Wood of Clemson University; and his sister, Meriam B. Young of Pickens. Additionally, he is survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Sam was predeceased, in addition to his parents, by a sister, Colleen Brezeale, and a brother, Keith Brezeale.

At Sam's request, there will be no formal visitation or funeral. Instead, his wish was for his family to scatter his ashes privately at a future date. His family wishes to thank Cindy Brezeale, Tommy Stephens, and Irene Owens for their generous help in Sam's care. He is loved and will be greatly missed.

The family is at their respective homes.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Brezeale family.

“ Sam was a great friend for many years! I wish I could have seen him more in these later years. He gave me a job at Hank and Sam’s Gulf when I was a teenager. Great memories of running the wrecker for them and pumping gas. Then later on Sam and I drove as a team for a while to California and back. Sam’s smile and laugh will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace dear friend! Blessings on the family.

“ My sweet, funny, handsome cousin, you never complained, never stopped trying to get better. Your pain and suffering has ended but your spirit will remain in our hearts always. Bet that reunion in heaven with your mom, dad, sister and brother was amazing. Watch over your sis here with us and help her know she is loved. God speed. We love and miss you. Trish
