“ Al, Ryan and Stephanie and family, There is truly no place to begin. I always looked forward to coming to maw-maws for the holidays to see you guys. The memories of spending a week with you all in the summers and the many stories my mom would share of Sandra of them growing up. She was like a sister to Shirley and we all thought so much of her. It touched my heart how she kept in close contact with daddy even after mama passed away. I have to share that she cross stitched us some Christmas ornaments and over 30 years later they still hang on our tree every year. I guess a comfort that I can look to that Sandra and Jake, Glenn and mama, and all the cousins and aunts and uncles that grew up right there together that have gone on before are now celebrating together. I pray especially for the grand kids at this time. Always remember to keep her alive for them thru stories, photos and videos.
I love you all and will be keeping you in prayer in the coming days weeks and months for peace and healing.
