“ Growing up together with all our family we all was very close and played together .You never think that one day they won't be there .You take for granted the time you have with them .Chris was a wonderful cousin to me .He was there to help me during some hard times and I'll never forget that .We use to go skating as kids together fish some as kids and adults .Chris was just a big hearted man and if ou knew him you knew he was a joy to be around .He always had a laugh about things .He loved his family .There's so many things I remember about growing up with Chris but his smile and heart is the biggest part.You will truly be missed in my life but you'll never be forgotten.
