“ I just want to tell her family that they have my deepest condolences. She was a wonderful friend and supervisor. Last year I became a nurse she always told me everything would be okay all the time. If I was behind she would always step in to help. We lost a real angel on Earth but we'll see her again one day.

“ Andy, Beth , and Beth Marie, Please know that I am so very sorry that this heartache has come upon your family. .We have no way of understanding God's purpose in this matter. I wish I could say something to you that would replemish your broken hearts so that life would be as it has been forever for your family. I have learned thru the tragic loss of 2 brothers that life goes on although at times like this you feel that with every heartbeat you feel that this is bound to be your last. Because no way can you overcome this hurt. It is true that what does not kill us will make us stronger. I am praying that all if you will soon find peace thru God's grace!
