“ Shawn Mathis, you were an amazing man to everyone but most of all to me I was blessed to have spent 15 wonderful years with you and their will never be a day that goes by that I don't think of and miss you.... You taught me almost everything I knew about living life and how to survive life you took me places I have never been and taught me things I needed for life but most of all you showed me what true love was and for that I am so grateful you will never be forgotten I love you

Although the time has come for us to part ways their will be a day come when we will see each other again so Goodbye for now Shawn Mathis
