“ To Sherry's Family, I send my Condolences. I knew Sherry back in 2006, and 2007 when I use to work for Northern Anderson Co EMS, I would come hang out at the rescue squad sometimes and that's where I met Sherry. We had run a few Emergency calls together. When my company at the time would have me dispatched to BFE, her rescue squad would respond and give assistance. She had such a passion for helping others. Regardless of how serious the situation was, she had a talent of helping others remain calm at the most intense moments. I often thought we had a Gardian Angel present looking after us. I'm very sad to hear she has already ascended to Heaven so Soon. I will keep You all in My Prayers. Dear Heavenly Father, it is with deep sympathy for my Friend Sherry that I come to you at this hour, please Lord Bless this family. You see there needs Lord, I humbly ask you to Bless Sherrys family and friends in this trying time. In your Heavenly name I Pray. Amen.
Sincerely
