

Shirley Ann Boiter

January 21, 1943 - February 2, 2026

Shirley Ann Boiter
Easley, South Carolina

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Shirley Ann Boiter, who went home to be with the Lord late in the night of February 2, 2026. She passed peacefully in her sleep at her daughter's home, surrounded by love.

Shirley was the beloved daughter of the late William Bolt Stegall and Daisy Elizabeth Stegall, and sister to the late Roger William Stegall. She was a devoted mother to Chester Franklin Boiter and Rita Renee Izquierdo, a cherished grandmother to five granddaughters—Ramada Boiter, Kayla Thompson, Kerri Thomas, Candice Darnell, and Krystle Gilstrap—and a proud great-grandmother to eleven and a great-great-grandmother to one, all precious children she adored.

Small in stature but mighty in spirit, Shirley never met a stranger. Raised on a farm, she learned the value of hard work early in life and carried that lesson with her always. She dedicated over 30 years to stone manufacturing, retiring as a manager and earning the respect of all who knew her for her strength, kindness, and unwavering work ethic.

Shirley lived her life guided by her faith, believing deeply in loving others, forgiving freely, and walking hand in hand with her Savior, Jesus Christ. She was a true example of what it means to be a daughter, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Her smile, laughter, and warm hugs were gifts she freely gave, and her love for her “babies” knew no bounds.

Her legacy—to love hard, forgive fast, look for the good in all, and never give up—will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the St. Jude’s Foundation or that you perform a random act of kindness in Shirley’s memory.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, February 10, 2026, from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM in the chapel of Mountain View Funeral Home in Pickens with a funeral service to follow at 2:00 PM. Burial will take place following the service at Rock Springs Baptist Church Cemetery in Easley.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Boiter family.
