“ So sorry to learn of Stacy’s death. She took care of my dad—Papa Ervin Lee—and was loved by all of us. She had a heart of gold, in my opinion, and knew exactly what Dad needed and when he needed it. On Wednesdays she often picked my mom up at Mariner and brought her to have lunch with my dad. There’s a special place in Heaven for this hard-working, dependable, loving lady who loved Jesus and showed it in how she treated everyone she took care of. Blessings dear Stacy. Thank you for all your help.
