“ Susan and I always had a laugh about both being Susan Gilstrap! You see we married brothers. She married Frank and I married Clarence or Junior or Gil whatever you know him by. Susan was my sister! Forget the in law. I was Susan no.1 and she was Susan no.2. I married into the family before she married Frank. That's the way they kept us straight. "It's Aunt Susan , Jr.'s " or "It's Aunt Susan, Frank's Susan!" I will miss you dearly.

“ The first time I ever laid eyes on Susan, she and Diane were walking home home from Pickens Elementary School as well as me and my brother. I remember many a trip in the white car with her, Diane, Carol, Grannie Crowe and Missey sitting on her lap, and Papa Crowe driving. The car packed going to Mt. Tabor Baptist Church. Many life struggles, and challenges but God is good! Thankful for memories.
