“ I hadn't got to see your wife and mother since my mother and I were having the yard sales at Crawford Couch's old store building on the Midway Road ans we had a good visit that day. We were always friends while you children were in school and growing up and we were always friends because of our love for dogs, specially Chichuahuas. You have our whole family's sincere sympathy. Hidden Valley Road is a very dangerous road and it was hard to tell where that tiling was in the summer when the weeds grow up even to the road and you can't see how much it really drops off. Praying for each of you as you deal with your loss...
