“ I thought I would never have to be saying this so soon but if you know me and my sister situation when we was kids it felt like we wasn't as close to my mom until I turned 13 I still remember all the good memories we had when she was able to get around when I was a kid she would do anything for me and my sister I remember all the times she had to come get me in the middle of the night when I was sick and take to the hospital and I remember and the fun time we had doing the paper route then I remember all the bad times I had and I regret some of things I said to her sometimes all the fights we would get in and now thinking back I probably wouldn't change a thing I remember last Wednesday morning was the last time I got to talk to her and I face timed her to show her baby Riley and it was really brief but at the end of the call mama said now Riley always remember you keep me in your heart and you will always be in mine and that was the most sweetest thing I've heard my mama say in a long time and mama if you're listening right now I just wanna say I'm so sorry for all the bad things I've done and I love you so very much and you will be missed
